

Ron Hurst, MBA, MSc, ACC

Finding Purpose and Passion

Meet Ron...

Over the past 15 years, Ron Hurst has worked diligently to become one of America's premier trainers. Carefully integrated into his dynamic training style is an International Coaching Federation certification in coaching. Skilled in multiple dimensions of business, training and coaching methods, Ron brings a unique perspective to his clients. In 2006, he completed his Masters Degree in leadership and Organizational Development from the University of La Verne. This degree is foundational to his ability to deliver training that is relevant, effective and timeless to his clients.

Throughout his career, Ron has expanded his skill set through successful achievement in Operations, Research, Sales, Quality General Management and most recently entrepreneur and business owner. He has been trained in Six Sigma and is a black belt in this discipline. He is active in numerous not for profit enterprises from executive leadership roles to frontline volunteer.

From humble working class roots, Ron has always sought to walk a mile in the other man's shoes. He has a rare capability to view problems from the inside and to offer advice that is both candid and contextually sensitive. He has an innate ability to get to the heart of a situation and to assist people in all walks of life to find the purpose and passion in their own life.

Presentations...

With clients such as Converse, Sears, Kenworth, Mattel, Payless Shoes, Burlington Coat Factory, and many others, he is no stranger to working together for your success. He customizes each presentation to fit the needs of the audience.
